Two were shot and are in a stable condition in hospital. The third man is in police custody at the time of writing. Police have not confirmed the number of shots fired in the incident but it is believed one person used a firearm. "Police are at this time urging anyone who knows anything about this incident or who may have been affected by it to contact Crime Stoppers," Commander Stuart Bates said. "Whilst the restaurant was busy with patrons and staff at the time, this incident is believed to have occurred out the back where there was minimal foot traffic." Anyone with information can call Crimestoppers anonymously. A spokesman for Alan Jackson's said the restaurant would remain closed on Monday. Boris Johnson on Friday ordered lawmakers to immediately deliver a new law to end a 48-hour power grab by Parliament that must be passed by the end of the day to prorogue, or delay, the Brexit deadline. The order meant Parliament, which is in recess until next week, would return early to debate the issue. Johnson, the U.K. prime minister who will ask the Queen to make Britain leave the EU by the current deadline of Oct. 31, has now set the terms of Brexit. Johnson has repeatedly accused Parliament of interfering in the Brexit process and he has vowed to halt a cross-party effort to block a "no-deal" exit, which he says could be the only way to prevent a chaotic and disastrous departure. On Friday morning, British lawmakers agreed to back Johnson's position by 632 votes to 202, with 74 abstentions. The defeat means that there will be no delay to Brexit, paving the way for Johnson
