Look for these key gameplay features in FIFA 22 when it launches on September 19. A FLUID, DYNAMIC NEW FORMAT 1. High-intensity Action A new icon-based Quickplay mode keeps the action fast, fun and easy to start and play. In Quickplay mode, you'll earn rewards for scoring more goals and trying to beat your high scores in dynamic new ways.  Quickplay matches will be shorter in duration than last year, in order to retain the pace of the game without extending the time it takes to play and earn rewards. 2. Improved Skills Unlock more than 100 new passing and dribbling mechanics, including stronger touches for players, greater off-ball dribbling, ball carrying and a new spin passing mechanic. Player intelligence is also improved. Now, goalkeepers can see through the ball on longer passes, while attackers can adjust their run-up to produce more powerful strikes.  The Power of Consistency A new "Ball Retry" feature enables coaches to be more creative and allow players to take risks if they're on the ball, knowing they'll be able to recover if they don't complete the pass or move into position.  Support Your Club FIFA 22 introduces the ability for players to play as a club's official stars on loan from different leagues, including players from more than 50 leagues, such as the MLS, La Liga, Bundesliga and more. 3. A New World FIFA 22 introduces "The Journey" to the FIFA franchise, a new way to play FIFA 22 by instantly traveling anywhere in the real world with the press of a button. In The Journey, you can explore the world's biggest cities, play a match against your teammates or challenge friends to a random game.  The Journey is available in English, Spanish, French, Italian, German, Japanese, Russian, Brazilian Portuguese and Polish. 4. Universal Teammate AI In single-player, you can have any human player on your team. FIFA 22 introduces the world's first official human player on your FIFA Ultimate Team. 5. New Behaviors The ball react to the characters on the field. This gives FIFA 22 an unprecedented level of realism. When a player runs at the ball, it instinctively reacts to the challenge, allowing players to play
